

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2271 - HB 2273

January 30, 1998

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires that each county official must provide employees access to a copy of applicable personnel policies, along with any amendments thereto. Current law requires that each employee have their own personal copy of such policies and amendments.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease Local Govt. Expenditures - Not Significant

To the extent that local officials choose to stop printing and distributing individual copies of policies, local governments will experience a decrease in expenditures which is expected to be not significant.
